- 1 Last year we witnessed the announcement of the US President. Donald Trump to unilaterally
- 2 move the embassy of his country in Israel from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem, recognizing it as the
- 3 capital of the occupying power of the Palestinian territory, developing a dry discussion about it
- 4 in the United Nations.
- 5 First, the UN Security Council has adopted several resolutions on the subject, including
- 6 resolutions no. 242/1967, no. 252/1968, no. 267/1969, no. 298/1971, no. 338/1973. , no.
- 7 446/1979, no. 465/1980, no. 476/1980 and no. 478/1980, the most recent being resolution no.
- 8 2334/16, which clearly indicates that Israel's attempts to obtain alter the character and status
- 9 of Jerusalem through legislative and administrative measures due to the violation of
- 10 international law as well as the obstruction to the achievement of peace in the middle east. To
- 11 this is added the resolution on the status of Jerusalem taken by the UN General Assembly of
- 12 December 21, 2017, which reiterates the call to reverse the negative tendencies towards the
- 13 solution of two states in the area, intensifying international efforts and support. destined to
- 14 achieve a broad, just and lasting peace.
- 15 Secondly, the pronouncements of Nikki Haley, us ambassador. before the un, noting that "the
- 16 United States will remember this day, when it was appointed to be attacked in this assembly",
- 17 that "we will remember it when it asks us, once again, to make the greatest contribution in the
- 18 world", that "this vote will mark a difference in how americans see the UN", along with the
- 19 threat of President Trump saying that "we are monitoring those votes", both before the
- 20 emergency session of the UN General Assembly, are intimidations that do not apply to nations
- 21 that have same conditions and value in the international arena.
- 22 It is important to achieve in the area the end of the military occupation of Palestine and to
- 23 respect the status of a city of international status in Jerusalem. it has a unique political,

24 historical and spiritual significance in the world. in the same way, it is important to note the 25 growing isolation of the united states in the international arena, receiving the support of right-
26 wing dictatorships and pressured small countries in this kind of issues. In this context, IUSY 27 expresses its deepest concerns about the facts that break the necessary neutrality to achieve a 28 peaceful solution of the conflict. Plus, IUSY strongly condemns the threatening tendency of the 29 US Government to countries that vote against their decision in international organizations.
30 Finally, we call on all organization to stand against these policies and show your public 31 repudiation about that.
