- 1 We are witnessing the latest developments regarding Jerusalem's status, following US
2 President Donald Trump's irresponsible speech. Jerusalem is de-facto Israel's capital 3 city, and the alleged official recognition by the current US administration is an 4 unnecessary provocation considering the current political climate. The primary issue
5 concerning the recent statement is the fact that it surges at a time of non-existing efforts
6 by the Israeli government to promote the establishment of a Palestinian state alongside 7 an Israeli state and to end its prolonged occupation of the Palestinian territories and the 8 Palestinian people.
- 9 During the last decade, the Israeli government, led by Prime Minister Benjamin 10 Netanyahu, has been promoting the expansion of the settlement enterprise and 11 obstructing pathway towards a two-state solution. The consequences of these actions 12 are catastrophic in both the short and the long term, raising the levels of hostility, civilian 13 vulnerability on both sides of the conflict, and a sense of despair leading to regional 14 violence.

15 IUSY continues to support the two-state solution as the overriding method to achieve a 16 peace agreement in the Middle East. A Palestinian state with East Jerusalem as its 17 capital, alongside the State of Israel, with West Jerusalem as its capital, is an essential 18 measure for the region, and is the only pragmatic and constructive solution in which the 19 principles of equality and justice can be established for both peoples.

20 We call for the end of the Israeli occupation of the Palestinian people, based on our 21 belief in equality and freedom, and aspire for independence and self-determination of all 22 peoples in the region. We hope to end the rising violence in Israel and the Occupied 23 Palestinian territories and to establish a just, egalitarian and secure space with 24 opportunities for life, development, freedom of speech, peace and solidarity.

25 IUSY shall continue to urge the Israeli government to act immediately for this cause.
26 IUSY expresses dual solidarity with its member organizations both in Israel and 27 Palestine who work persistently in order to establish a large movement of activists who 28 share this vision of peace and justice. The support of socialists from all corners of the 29 globe is essential in the efforts for strengthening this voice within Israel, and in 30 promoting the ability to build a sustainable and just future for both the Israeli and the 31 Palestinian people.
