I have experience in the fields of Accounting, Sales, Customer Service, and Project Management as well as in responsibility roles within the Progressive Youth Organization and volunteering experience at the Children Cancer Center here in Lebanon.

As a student, I have always distinguished myself for being an analytical, hardworking, responsible, dynamic & enthusiastic learner.

I am currently working on a project at Al Iktissad Wal Aamal, titled as "UNLOCK Blockchain" it will take place in Dubai, UAE. I worked previously on 4 projects in Lebanon titled as "Egyptian Lebanese Business Forum", "Lebanon Economic Forum" and "New Arab Women Forum" and 1 project in KSA "International Conference on C4I Solutions".

My tasks include the following: Sales and Marketing of the event on both levels (sponsorships and participation), sponsor support, coordination of logistics, marketing and promotion of the events on social media, and Business Research for new opportunities and exhibitions that can be executed.

I have had experience as an intern at Banque du Liban (Central Bank); this has given me knowledge in its diverse departments: Human Resources, Foreign Affairs, Auditing and Inspection, and Payment Systems.

I had also worked as a sales associate and cashier at Yogen Frusz where I developed my customer service abilities and tracked everything from inventory to daily sales and expenses, and supervised employees in the shifts.

During my internship stay at Capital Finance Company (CFC), I gained valuable experience in accounting ranging from handling credit cards to issuing checks and bills to checking daily transactions.

Working as a volunteer at the Children Cancer Center, I learned how to take care of children and participate in the organization of fun activities.

As for my participation in the Progressive Youth Organization, I was able to climb the ladder very fast and take ever increasing responsibilities within the organization to become the International Affairs Officer at the National Executive Committee. It is through the PYO that I was able to develop most of my leadership, organization and oral communication skills. Besides, I am the project manager of joint programs between PYO and foreign youth organizations.

I worked on several major projects in PYO, those were joint projects with foreign organizations and NGOs, the projects focused on achieving women equality inside the organizations and Bridging the gap between political parties and social movements, campaigning, communication and social media, promoting citizenship and fighting extremism.
