

Presentation:

My name is Noa Neumark, I am 27 years old from Jerusalem, Israel. I am currently studying my MA degree in Sociology in the Hebrew University, writing my thesis about activism and social change through Archaeology.

I work as a teacher assistant and a research assistant in various projects, considering different sociological issues. My main project considers the Israeli labor market, mainly Hi-tech employees, and the different experiences or challenges that Arab and Jewish workers in Israel have. Furthermore, I work as a tour guide in Jerusalem, mainly for children and youth.

Through my BA years I worked in the Ministry of Education in the field of Gender Equality and in “Bakehila” organization, with young volunteers which are doing their year of community service in different neighborhoods of Jerusalem.

Moreover, I am an activist in Young Meretz, in which I did many different projects and campaigns, all promoting equality, solidarity and peace. I participated in many different delegations: with WBC, Geneva initiative and KLH.
