The International Union of Socialist Youth has been satisfied with the conduct of the presidential and legislative elections in the Democratic Republic of Congo, which has gone through a turbulent period since the non-organization of elections in 2016, thus causing a crisis of legitimacy, unrest, deaths and several arbitrary arrests during demonstrations calling for elections.

1. Commends the Congolese people for their maturity and success in the holding of the elections in December 2018
2. Congratulates Comrade Félix Antoine TSHISEKEDI, former President of the Union for Democracy and Social Progress for his victory as President of the Democratic Republic of Congo following the presidential elections of December 30, 2018.
3. It welcomes the alternation and the peaceful transfer of power between a former President and a newly elected President, a first in the DRC and marks his entry into the concert of nations where alternation at the top of the State is a reality.
4. She asks all the social democratic governments to lend their support and collaboration to comrade Félix Antoine TSHISEKEDI.
5. It also encourages Comrade Félix Antoine TSHISEKEDI, President of the Democratic Republic of Congo to apply the socio-democratic values to meet the expectations of the population and especially Congolese Youth.
